[God said to Moses,] "The Israelites' cries of injustice have reached me. I've seen just how much the Egyptians have oppressed them. So get going. I'm sending you to Pharaoh to bring my people, the Israelites, out of Egypt." Moses and Aaron went to Pharaoh and said, "This is what the LORD, Israel's God, says: 'Let my people go so that they can hold a festival for me in the desert.'" But Pharaoh said, "Who is this LORD whom I'm supposed to obey by letting Israel go? I don't know this LORD, and I certainly won't let Israel go." (Exodus 3:9-10, 5:1-2)

Lord, through the power of your hand, you led your people out of slavery and certain death. You continue to do the same for us today. By our own choosing, we can become slaves to our own foolish ways. Forgive us, LORD, for we, too, need your deliverance from sin and death. We need only what you can offer — salvation. In Jesus' name, we pray. Amen.

Lake Deaton Ground Breaking

Sunday, October 1 at 4 p.m. — Lake Deaton Property

This Sunday, we join as a congregation to usher in a new phase of New Covenant, a ground breaking service at the Lake Deaton Campus property. As we join together to praise God for our land, our new building, and for the ministries that will continue to grow from the Lake Deaton campus, let us first offer prayer for His call and for the power he has given us to remain faithful to the call to make disciples.

The reason we are able to have this ground breaking service is because of the faithful commitment of the members of New Covenant to stay engaged in the vital mission of making disciples for the transformation of the world.

Whether you are able to join us for the celebration or not, please continue to pray for the ministries of New Covenant, that we will continue to seek to be the hands, feet, and voice of Jesus in and around The Villages. Pray for the construction that will take place over the next year, for the workers, and for the many, many people who will be reached with God's love because New Covenant is growing God's Kingdom.

JESUS' final instructions to His church were that we actively pursue making disciples. This commandment calls us to always be on a path of vitality in seeking to reach out to the world around us with the incredible love of God through Jesus Christ.

Our Purpose: To come to know the love of Christ and to make His love known to others for the transformation of the world

Outreach Ministry

Operation Christmas Shoe Box
